

International Training Programme on Tools and Techniques of Soil Survey organized for the officials of Govt. of Bhutan

- Begins on 11 September 2017 at ICAR-NBSS&LUP

International training programme for trainee officers of Govt. of Bhutan on Tools and Techniques of Soil Survey and Mapping (from 11th Sept. to 7th Oct, 2017) inaugurated by Dr. S.K. Singh, Director at ICAR-National Bureau of Soil Survey & Land Use Planning (NBSS&LUP), Nagpur on 11th September 2017.

Dr. Singh informed that the training module consists of Remote sensing and GIS applications in Land Resource Inventory and Land Use Planning & Agriculture as a whole, besides introduction of basic principles of Pedology, Soil Resource Inventory, soil correlation, classification, mapping and applications of natural resources in land evaluation & land use planning.

During the inauguration, Dr. T.K. Sen. Pr. Scientist, & Head Division of LUP and Training Coordinator, Dr. Rajeev Srivastava, Head RSA Division and Dr. P. Chandran, Head SRS Division and Dr. Obi Reddy, Pr. Scientists were present.

One of the trainee officers from Bhutan interacting with Dr. S.K. Singh, Director, NBSS&LUP and Course Director of the Training Programme during the inaugural session.