Short Term Training Programme (Duration: 02-13 August, 2019) on “Tools & Techniques of Soil Resource Survey for Land Use Planning” has been inaugurated by Honorable Director at ICAR-National Bureau of Soil Survey and Land Use Planning (ICAR), Nagpur. The programme is Sponsored by Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), Government of India. There are eight participants from seven countries-Malawi, Seychelles, Namibia, Comoros, Sudan, Tanzania and Zambia. Trainee officers are undergoing for comprehensive training in soil survey using modern tools and technique of GIS and remote sensing for optimal land use planning.